MY STORY, HIS GLORY

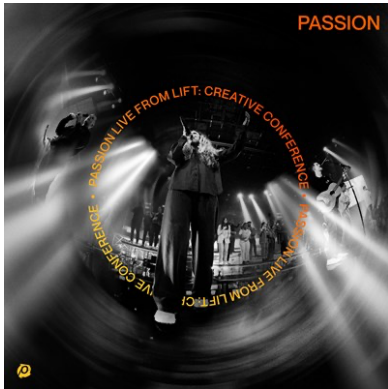

My experience attending is something I still can't put into words... but I'll try. A room of strangers on Friday, and what is this all about? Does God even know me or forgive me for my sins? Do I belong here? Saturday, the walls start to come down. You experience authenticity and transparency with sisters who are just as broken, going through a season in life, or are still not sure what a relationship with God even looks like. Sunday... WOW! You now have SISTERS in Christ who pray for you, pray over you, pray with you, and each one can't help but experience what an Encounter with God can do in your life. You leave wanting to share this with everyone!

MONTHLY ENCOURAGEMENT

“If the point of our work is to serve and exalt ourselves, then our work inevitably becomes less about the work and more about us. But if the purpose of work is to serve and exalt something beyond ourselves, then we actually have a better reason to deploy our talent, ambition, and entrepreneurial vigor—and we are more likely to be successful in the long run, even by the world’s definition.”

- Timothy Keller
(Every Good Endeavor)

How can we begin to view our daily work as service to others and service to God, instead of to ourselves? What might this unleash inside of us and in the Kingdom of God?
