Testimonies

Men's Encounter has been one of the greatest experiences of my life as it helped me deal with issues from my past by allowing Jesus to bring healing and comfort. It has helped me form deep friendships with brothers who are molding me into the image of Christ. It truly has shown me what love and freedom looks like. It has helped to reveal and define God's calling on my life.

Women's 2.0 Intensive centered around the Book of Ruth, proved to be a deeply meaningful experience in my spiritual journey. Surrounded by my wonderful sisters, this encounter served as a pivotal moment of spiritual growth. In the study of the Book of Ruth, we delved into themes of loyalty, resilience, sacrifice, and the power of God's love. Guided by insightful teachings and engaging table discussions, I found myself captivated by the relevance of Ruth's story to our lives today. Ruth's unwavering commitment to her mother-in-law Naomi, her resilience in adversity, and her humble faith in God's provision stirred something profound within me. In our discussions, we reflected on our relationships, hardships, and moments of doubt, finding inspiration in Ruth's steadfast character and unwavering trust in God's faithfulness. A particularly impactful moment arose during our reflection on Ruth's declaration to Naomi: "Where you go, I will go; where you stay, I will stay. Your people will be my people, and your God my God." These words challenged me to examine the depth of my commitment and the strength of my faith in God's providence.

Ruth's story served as a beacon of hope and encouragement, reminding me of the beauty found in acts of kindness, the power of community, and the redemptive work of God in our lives.

As a result, I left the encounter with a renewed sense of purpose and faith, inspired to emulate Ruth's courage, compassion, and unwavering trust in God's plan.

On a recent weekend at a Marriage Encounter, I was able to break through some barriers I never realized or at least hadn't remembered after 33 years of marriage.

Since there were multiple failed marriages between us, mostly mine, I had spent a major portion of the last 39 years searching for what God has to say about marriage.

And, after a 33-year track record with no separations, I figured we had a fair handle on Biblical marriage.

At the Encounter the focus was on how much deeper and more alive our relationship could be when guided by Him.

How much work true love is and what God designed for us in marriage.

I began to share more intimate details of my struggle with my sins with my wife and ask her to pray for me in specific ways.

The battle I was meant to fight and ultimately win with the three of us, me, my wife and God the Holy Spirit became more focused.

It was a crash course revealing the unsearchable depth of God's love He created for us to walk in.

Focusing on harmony and fidelity made His wisdom come alive for us
